

NeBAA ANNOUNCES FLIGHT TRAINING SCHOLARSHIP

The Nebraska Business Aviation Association, in coordination with FlightSafety International is announcing the Annual flight training scholarship to be awarded to a current NeBAA member pursuing a career in Business Aviation.

The Flight Training Scholarship being awarded consists of either the Airline Transport Pilot Certification Training program (ATP-CTP facilitated through one of FlightSafety's Learning Centers with locations in ATL, HOU, STL, TUS, SEA) OR a King Air 200 / ProLine 21 Initial Training Course (ICT only). The ATP-CTP course runs 5 days & the KA200 ProLine 21 Initial course runs 12-13 days in length, and the recipient will be responsible for transportation, room and board. However, upon successful completion of the course, NeBAA will reimburse the recipient for travel expenses up to $1500. In addition, this scholarship will be valid for a period of one year commencing December 1st, 2018. NeBAA strongly recommends scheduling the event in the first (8) months of 2019.

The applicant must hold a valid US pilot certificate and meet the following minimum requirements of pilot experience:

- Multi-Engine Land / Commercial / Instrument Rating
- 500 HR Total Time
- Additional ratings such as CFI / Multi CFI are preferred
- FAA II (second class) medical / Proof of US Citizenship (valid US Passport or Birth Certificate)

The applicant must submit the following application materials in order to be considered for this award:

- At least one letter of recommendation from:
 - a faculty member of their college experience, or
 - an employer, or
 - an aviation professional reference.
- Provide a typed essay, at least 500 words describing your flight experience, your goals and why you are interested in a Business and Corporate Aviation career, along with choice of scholarship.
- NeBAA Regular Membership – application available at: www.NeBAA.org
 - Current Contact Info – address / email / phone

Deadline for submission: December 1, 2018 (all materials must be received by this date)

Scholarship winner will be notified in writing as well as recognized in Omaha at the February 2019 Quarterly NeBAA Luncheon. Actual location TBD. Attendance is highly encouraged though not required.
